

The Royal Ulster Constabulary George Cross Foundation has released the first in a planned series of CD's of extracts from interviews given as part of the Foundation's Oral History Project.

Thirty one former members of the RUC GC recall what prompted them to join the police service in Northern Ireland. The recollections will strike a chord with former members and their families. For others the CD will provide an insight into the motivation of those who served.

The introduction to the CD is by Paul Clark and includes music by the Band of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

The CD is available now from the Foundation Office – price £5.00 with proceeds going to fund the activities of the RUC GC Foundation.
Telephone No: 02890 700116