Royal Ulster Constabulary George Cross Foundation Trustees (Part-time)

Royal Ulster Constabulary George Cross Foundation

Appointment of Three Trustees (part-time)

The Department is seeking to appoint three part-time Trustees for a term of 5 years.

The RUC GC Foundation has many varied roles including documenting the history of policing, maintaining the RUC Memorial Garden at Brooklyn, and making a positive contribution to the professional development of police officers and policing, through a bursary scheme for serving police officers in Northern Ireland. The Foundation, working with the community, also delivers outreach and educational initiatives.

As a part-time Trustee you could help deliver this important work. The time commitment normally amounts to four days per month, at the Foundation's office at Brooklyn, Belfast. Trustees will also represent the Foundation at external events outside of normal working hours.

Trustees are not remunerated but travel costs may be reimbursed where applicable.

We particularly welcome applications from women, people from the Roman Catholic community, people under the age of 40, ethnic minorities and people with a disability.

No academic qualifications are required for the post. Appointment will be made on merit from those individuals who best satisfy the essential and desirable criteria: Governance and Management of Resources; Working in Partnership and Relationship Management; Thinking Strategically; Communication and Interpersonal Skills; and Understanding and Empathy.

Applications close at: noon on Thursday 28 September 2017.

Late applications will not be considered.

It is anticipated that interviews will be held on 11 and 12 October 2017.

Further information and application pack can be found at:

Or by writing to: RUC GC Foundation 2017, Department of Justice, Policing Policy & Strategy Division, Room A4.15, Block A, Castle Buildings, Stormont Estate, Belfast, BT4 3SG.

Candidate information packs and application forms can be provided in alternative formats and applicants requiring assistance will be facilitated on request.

Equality of Opportunity

The Department of Justice is committed to the principles of public appointments based on merit with independent assessment, openness and transparency of process. The Department is committed to providing equality of opportunity for all applicants. Applications are welcomed regardless of age, gender, disability, marital status, religion, ethnic origin, political opinion, sexual orientation or whether or not you have dependants. In keeping with the Departmental Policy on Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, we would also welcome applications from those not currently serving on public bodies.
